

Evolution That Happens Daily – Unleashed

(Written 4-18-21)

Evolution, the physical side which is more hypothetical than anything, and the Mental side that we are achieving daily!

It seems the entire world has been kept in the dark when it comes to Evolution!

Because something has kept us focused on an evolutionary process that spans millions of years, which makes it conveniently beyond our grasp of understanding!

The Power within Nature (God) has NEVER left and has been here all along creating new species of life to fill in the gaps of humanities destruction on other species. This is also Evolution!

(The following paragraph is me speculating humorously – so don't take it too seriously)
(Although it might just be like this for all of us.)

“God is continuously creating life and on 12-25-1969, God created me with a little input from my parents. If God created me in his image, then I would say that the biological part is from God also. My parents just happened to be there making a mess!”

There is a song that relates to me called ‘Hotel California’ by ‘The Eagles’!

God has also been here all along working with us to create evolutionary changes in animals around the world!

You've probably heard how we had taught an animal something and then suddenly, the entire species, that is spread around the world, knows it!

I would just call this working with God! What happened is that someone trained a good idea into an animal and God thought this was a beneficial change for that species itself and so, made the changes that we didn't have the capability of doing.

God created us which means this evolutionary change would have been simple!

Now onto an Evolutionary process that happens on a daily basis!

Self-Improvement is Evolution on an individual basis! It is You becoming a Better You!

If you are going to compare yourself to others, then compare yourself to the Absolute Best person you have ever heard of in your entire life! Then strive to become better than them!

If that person became great thru their passion of helping others, then you have a Great Mentor to become Greater than! Strive to achieve ALL the Positive qualities of that individual plus more!

One of my Mentors said that I could be even Greater than him!

I believed him and did just that!

Christ lived 2,000 years ago and many of his Teachings aren't understood by the church because they don't want to understand his teachings that were buried out of their own control for 1,700 years.

Mainly because those teachings are against the church itself and anyone else that would seek to Control others for their own benefit!

I am now giving a description of many of his teachings based on my own experiences in life!
I am also continuing his teachings where he left off!

Christ's Intelligence was off-the-charts! And it was his Intelligence that helped him to gain knowledge at a rate that is constantly increasing!

Because of this I must keep finding more things for my mind to do!

I have found a way to do what Christ did but in my own way! If Christ had been able to write, our world today would be some type of paradise! There would still be evil in the world, but it would be in a cage that could hold an ethereal species.

So, my way of changing the world is thru writing, for now! One of the funny things about Self-Improvement is that you will outgrow your own capacity to hold it in!

In other words, you will start to gain so much knowledge from within, that you want to share your knowledge (Truths) with a world that really needs it!

I taught myself how to change focus regularly which makes my mind a lot more efficient than others! While most people are working on a single problem with a mind that is capable of so much more, I am working on 10+ problems, all at the same time, and my mind keeps on going even when I'm sleeping. I'm not exactly sure how that works because I'm asleep, but when I wake up, I will have answers to several problems I had it working on. A Benefit to doing this is my mind just keeps picking up speed and never gets lazy!

Life is exciting and becoming less challenging! Understand that there is something that is with us regularly and each one of them wants to hold us down. Now understand that a speedbump is felt the most at slow speeds, but if you hit them at really fast speeds, you hardly even notice them!

Many People recently helped me by finding me on the streets, but most wouldn't say anything to me! There is a reason for this that I have come to understand but am not going to get into in this writing!

For those of you who have helped me over time, you know who you are, I'd like to thank you with this! Christ said that what leaves your mouth will defile you, but if you notice something, he just kept on talking himself. He was sharing his knowledge on this so people would be aware of it! But he kept on going himself because he faced these challenges head on, just like I do.

What I'm trying to say is don't let the challenge stop you for too long. The other reason, I can see for you having kept silent when helping me, is possibly because the Truth forces out the Truth, and I can respect that, as many people have told me things about themselves that I never wanted to know.

It kind of sucks to be a walking sponge for the Truth, but I'm sure that it won't be a problem once I learn how to 'shut up' myself! 😊

Have a Great Day!
